

TOP REASONS TO GO CONTRACTING

1. Variety – increase your current skills through diversity of exposure and experience – industry / technology / structures / cultures / companies / size / complexity.
2. You can experience a company without having to make a long term commitment.
3. Flexibility – work hours, holidays.
4. Lifestyle – you can have blocks of time free for your own projects.
5. Staying in the same company for a long time can make you become ‘too comfortable’ within the same organisation, in the same role. Branch out and meet new people, work in different, challenging environments. Keep your skills current.
6. Increased exposure to training program benefits via your agency as well as other Contractor Care Program Benefits.
7. Financial – Contracting can be financially rewarding with good pay rates and some tax benefits.
8. Be your own boss – take control of your own destiny, your career progression and growth.
9. You can focus on the job without being involved with the politics.
10. You can contract whilst you are looking for that next permanent job.
11. Promote your name – see through one contract at a time and earn yourself an excellent reputation amongst a variety of clients so that you’re well-known throughout the industry.
